

Julie Cole Bio

Julie grew up in a family deeply involved in public ministry. From that early time on, she has had a strong desire to help Christians realize and apply the healing God has given them to areas in their lives where they may be stuck.

This desire led to graduate training at Fuller Seminary in Marriage and Family counseling. Julie has been a marriage and family counselor for over 20 years and enjoys times when she gets to see people healed and moving forward in their spiritual destinies. Her desire is to continually know God better, hear His voice clearer, and in turn help others to do the same.

Julie has had counseling and teaching positions in California, Oklahoma, and Oregon. She currently teaches and counsels part-time at Eugene Bible College where her husband, David, is President. The Coles have 4 children-- Hannah, Abby, Willie, and Deborah-- and live in Eugene, OR
